

M/Y BOADICEA

Designed by Terence Disdale, Boadicea was built in steel and aluminum by Dutch yard Amels.

One of the utmost striking features of the vessel, beside the grand salon with a spectacular five meters ceiling height, a dramatic atrium - style area, is the magnificent newly created full beam Master Suite located forward on the upper deck. Master Suite is respectively including a spacious shower and Jacuzzi and astonishing 180 degrees panoramic view along with an additional privately accessible private deck. BOADICEA can comfortably accommodate for 16 guests in 8 cabins.
