

M/Y H1

H1 is built by a famous and quality Italian shipyard Sanlorenzo a little less than two years ago. The yacht boasts an efficient, lightweight aluminium hull. She also has a very interesting master quarters arrangement that spans three decks (147 m2), has a gym, a fold-down balcony, and direct access to a private spa pool on the foredeck with swim current for exercising. Her interiors are classy, yet very friendly and homely. H1 features a cool large beach club with folding bulwarks. She is in excellent condition and still under warranty.
