

M/Y PROJECT FOX

Currently in build at the renowned Pendennis shipyard in Falmouth, UK, PROJECT FOX is a 34.9m (114.3ft) explorer yacht with an interior designed by Q London. Her steel hull and aluminium superstructure are constructed to RINA commercial classification and she is scheduled for delivery in spring 2023. She represents a rare opportunity to jump congested build queues considerably on a yacht that celebrates the very best of British design and engineering.
